Day of the Dead Adventure

Arrive Todos Santos

There's no better time to visit Todos Santos than during the annual Day of the Dead festival, which honors and celebrates the importance of ancestors. The Catrina contest, symbolized by La Catrina, or "elegant skeleton," is the culmination of the Day of the Dead festivities. The symbolic Catrina is steeped in history, dating back to the early 1900s. She is inspired by Mictecacihuatl, the goddess of death and Lady of Mictlan, the underworld. The Day of the Dead festivities themselves originated from the Aztec tradition of honoring the dead.

Over your seven days in Baja, you'll get to know your expert Mexican guide, who will help you learn about local traditions and foods, as well as about the local wildlife and even the best way to interact with sea lions underwater. You are also accompanied by an AdventureWomen Ambassador, committed to helping make your experience a fun and personally rewarding adventure, and cheering you on as you reach beyond your comfort zone to take on new challenges in your own unique way!

Arrival Information

Arrive at San Jose del Cabo Airport (SJD) today before 3:00pm.

Pick-up and Transfer

You will be picked up at the San Jose del Cabo airport by your guide and transferred to your hotel.

You will receive specific instructions on the exact meeting location about a month prior to your trip. The Cabo airport is very busy, but AdventureWomen will make sure you know where you're going!

Welcome Dinner

Get to know your guide, your AdventureWomen Ambassador, and your fellow travelers over a delicious welcome dinner this evening. Learn about the history and traditions of the Day of the Dead festivities.

Day of the Dead Adventure

Todos Santos

Todos Santos is a desert oasis, backdropped by the Sierra de la Laguna Mountains and rimmed with gorgeous beaches and lush orchards of mangos, avocados, and palm trees. It's an official Pueblo Magico, one of Mexico's 50 off-the-beaten-path towns known for their "magical ambiance."

Morning Yoga

Enjoy an early morning yoga class on the sky deck. What better way to start your day than yoga overlooking the ocean?

Surfing Lesson

Take a surfing lesson today. No experience? No problem! Your instructors guarantee that you will stand up – at least for a moment – during your very first lesson.

The Day of the Dead La Catrina Contest

Head into town and watch the iconic Catrina contest! Celebrate the Day of the Dead in true Mexican fashion. More details will be shared about this celebration closer to the trip departure.

Day of the Dead Adventure

Todos Santos to Isla Espiritu Santo

One of the most striking things about the Baja peninsula is the incredible juxtaposition of desert and sea, happy home to both cactus and seagull. Artists and photographers are lured here by the quality of light, marine sports enthusiasts come to enjoy the challenging fun above and below the surface of the inviting big blue sea, and the local residents enjoy a stress-free lifestyle, welcoming visitors who seek a multi-layered getaway.

Travel to Isla Espiritu Santo

After breakfast, drive to La Paz, stopping to try on your wet suit and get your snorkeling gear. From La Paz, you will get on a boat for your 60-minute ride to your exclusive camp on the beach. Wear your bathing suit this morning, just in case there is a chance to swim along the way!

Afternoon Activities

Spend your afternoon kayaking or stand up paddle boarding exploring hidden lagoons and desert beaches.

Happy Hour

Enjoy the sunset with your group as you sip a cold drink and sit with your toes in the sand.

Day of the Dead Adventure

Isla Espiritu Santo

Jacques Cousteau once called the Sea of Cortez “the aquarium of the world” and “the Galapagos of North America.” About 39 percent of the world’s marine mammal species and 70 percent of the world’s marine cetacean species live or migrate through here, making this region one of the planet’s most bio-diverse ecosystems.

Swimming with Sea Lions

Swimming with sea lions is magical, with unforgettable nose-to-nose encounters. Grab some provided snorkeling gear and jump in with them.

Dinner

Enjoy a dinner from the camp kitchen and a relaxing night on the beach. Share stories about your experiences with the curious sea lions earlier today.

Day of the Dead Adventure

Isla Espiritu Santo

Spend the day on Isla Espiritu Santo. Go hiking to explore the lava rock formations and striking cliffs of the island and look for all of the strange birds in the air and curious animals on the mainland. When the time comes to get in the water, go for a swim, kayak, snorkel, or stand up paddle board.

Island Hike

This hike gets you out on the island to learn about the local flora and fauna on foot. Wear closed-toed shoes - there are cacti around! The duration of the hike typically ranges from one to two hours, though it may vary.

Stand Up Paddle Boarding, Kayaking, or Snorkeling

Decide how you want to explore the sea just off the coast of Isla Espiritu Santo. Talk to your guides to take out a paddle board, throw on some snorkeling gear, or jump into a kayak. There's no wrong answer; this water has a way of never disappointing.

Adventure Travel Today

We define “adventure travel” as travel in which one actively participates, as opposed to a “tour,” in which one is more or less a passive observer. AdventureWomen designs and organizes trips all over the world for women who want an active, out of the ordinary experience, and meet new friends. Most of all, we want our trips to be fun! In this spirit, the successful adventure traveler should be a good-natured realist and have a sense of humor! Adventure trips, by nature, require that participants be self-sufficient, flexible, and able to accept situations as they exist, and not just as they would have preferred or expected them to exist. The constraints of scheduled group traveling also necessitate that each of us be understanding of and sensitive to others. Being on time is important, and contributes to the congeniality, success and well-being of both individuals and the group!
