Kyoto

Kyoto served as Japan's political, spiritual, and cultural capital from the 8th to the 17th centuries. While political power has moved to Tokyo, Kyoto has retained a firm grasp on Japanese culture and traditions and is renowned for its temples, festivals, and cuisine. You'll notice that even though Kyoto is one of Japan's largest cities, it doesn't have tall skyscrapers as you might expect. Few buildings or structures are taller than the pagoda of Toji Temple, located in the southwest of the central Kyoto area, which is the tallest pagoda in Japan at a height of 187 feet. The current pagoda dates to 1644, but the original was built in 864.

Ginkakuji Temple Visit Ginkakuji Temple, or the Silver Pavilion this morning. This temple is popular for its gardens and tea house.

Stroll on the Philosopher's Pathway Walk along the Philosopher's Path, with craft shops, cafés, shrines, and temples beside the clear waters of a small canal. One side of the canal is lined with cherry trees. Stop at Nanzenji, a tranquil Zen Buddhist temple dating back to the mid-13th century.

Maiko Experience After lunch in a private restaurant, you will be joined by a maiko, an apprentice geisha, or geiko. Geisha are revered for preserving traditional arts of music and dance. There are only approx. 250 in Kyoto, but they remain very much in demand for private functions. The world of the geisha is very closed, and introductions are often only made through personal connections.

Walking Tour of the Gion This afternoon, discover the back lanes and traditions of Gion, a famous district known for its tea houses, geiko, and maiko.

Dinner on Your Own Enjoy dinner on your own this evening. Your guide will make restaurant recommendations.

DAY 4
Wednesday
4/16/25

Kyoto to the Kumano Kodo

Now a UNESCO World Heritage site, the Kumano Kodo became popular in the 11th century as a place of pilgrimage. Kumano, part of the mountainous Kii Peninsula stretching south from the Kansai cities of Osaka, Nara, and Kyoto, has been a sacred site associated with worshipping nature since prehistoric times. The Kumano Kodo is associated with the Shugendo faith, a religion based on a form of mountain worship and blends a number of imported religions with native beliefs. At its core is an emphasis on physical endurance as a path to enlightenment.

Journey to the Kumano Kodo

Take the train from Kyoto to Kii Tanabe this morning. Once in Kii Tanabe, you will take a bus to Takijiri.

Lunch

Enjoy lunch before you start your hike.

Hike to Takahara

Begin your walk on the Nakahechi portion of the Kumano Kodo pilgrimage route. From Takijiri the path climbs steadily for about 1,200' over two hours to the ridge-top village of Takahara. Your delicious evening meal is made with organic, locally sourced ingredients.

DAY 5
Thursday

Kumano Kodo

The Nakahechi route of the Kumano Kodo pilgrimage network has been used extensively since the 10th century when Japan's Imperial ancestors first began the tradition. The classic pilgrimage circuit began in Kyoto at Jonan-gu shrine and finished with a visit to Kumano Nachi Taisha. On the return journey to Kyoto, pilgrims either retraced their steps or took the mountainous Ogumotori-goe and Kogumotori-goe passes to Hongu.

Hike to Chikatsuyu

Enjoy an early Japanese breakfast before departing your inn. Follow the trail as it winds through small settlements and peaceful countryside. You will pass several Oji shrines over 4-5 hours before finally descending to the village of Chikatsuyu. The paths are clearly defined, and flagstones have been laid in some places to make the climbs easier.

Lunch and Meet Local Women

Enjoy a late lunch and meet a local women's group, which preserves local traditions.

Afternoon at Leisure

Take some time to relax before dinner, which is served at your family-run guest house. Enjoy a soak in the hot springs bath.

Kumano Kodo

Today, hike in and around Hongu, one of the sacred shrines of pilgrimage on the Kumano Kodo. At the heart of these sacred mountains, Kumano was said to be the entrance to the land of Yomi, the 'other world' to which spirits traveled in Japanese mythology.

Hike to Hongu

Take a local bus to Hosshinmon-oji, where you will walk a gentle section of the trail for over 2.5 hours to the Kumano shrine at Hongu, one of the three 'Grand Shrines of Kumano'.

Meet a Yamabushi

During your walk, you will be accompanied by a yamabushi, or mountain ascetic priests. Learn more about the training of yamabushi and the Shugendo faith.

Lunch

Enjoy lunch at a local cafe.

Traditional Washi Paper Making

Arrive in Hongu, where you will make traditional Japanese washi paper. Otonashi paper is made from fibers of the mulberry plant and was once dedicated at the Hongu Grand shrine in the form of paper amulets called Gou Shinpu. Create your own piece of Washi at the workshop, and return to Hongu to have it stamped with a special Shuin red seal at the Kumano Grand Shrine – a traditional pilgrim's souvenir and work of art.

Visit Nachi Taisha Visit the shrine as well as the nearby Nachi waterfall, which is said to be inhabited by the kami spirit Kiryu Gongen. Nachi-san is one of the shrines of pilgrimage on the Kumano Kodo. The shrines of Nachi-san are set in primeval forest, and are marked by an ancient stone approach, the Dogenzaka. The adjacent Nachi-no-taki or waterfall crashes to the rocks below and is the focus of the traditional worship of natural spirits. The hike from Daimonzaka to Nachi is 3.17 miles with an elevation gain of 1,373'.

Travel by Train to Ise This morning, you will send your large bag ahead to Tokyo and then take the train to the Ise area.

Visit the Geku The outer shrine, or Geku, is dedicated to the spirit of food, clothing, and housing. Ama divers are women who practice free-dive fishing - they dive without oxygen tanks or other mechanical help - to collect seafood or pearl oysters. Archaeological evidence shows that Ama diving has been practiced in the area for nearly 3,000 years. However, this traditional lifestyle is under threat; it is slowly dying out as the younger generation of women choose not to follow in their mothers' footsteps.

Visit an Ama Pearl Diver

Spend the morning with an Ama Diver and learn about her life and unique profession. Enjoy a special seafood lunch with the diver.

DAY 10
Tuesday
4/22/25

Tokyo

Tokyo is the capital of Japan and is the eighth largest city in the world. Tokyo was originally a small fishing village named Edo, which means estuary. Its name was changed to Tokyo (to: “east”, and kyo: “capital”) when it became the imperial capital under Emperor Meiji in 1868. You’ll discover the city as the Japanese do today - by subway and train.

Hama Rikyu Gardens

Visit the Hama-Rikyu gardens this morning, located near the mouth of the Sumida-gawa, a large river that flows through Tokyo. The garden is divided into two major sections. The southern garden was the site of a villa where the Shogun (commander-in-chief) could relax, enjoy duck hunting, and entertain visitors from the 17th to 19th century. It contains the Shio-iri-no Niwa (garden with a tidal pond) which is on the sea, and its scenery varies with the ebb and flow of the tide. There is a striking contrast between the gardens and the gleaming towers of the new Shiodome business area beyond.

Ginza

Spend some time in the elegant Ginza shopping district. Enjoy lunch along the way.

Meiji Jingu

Explore the Grand Meiji Shrine, near Harajuku this afternoon. The shrine is dedicated to Emperor Meiji, who was instrumental in modernizing Japan. This tranquil oasis is on the doorstep of Harajuku and Omotesando – areas known for avant-garde fashion and architecture.

Adventure Travel Today

We define "adventure travel" as travel in which one actively participates, as opposed to a "tour," in which one is more or less a passive observer. AdventureWomen designs and organizes trips all over the world for women who want an active, out of the ordinary experience, and meet new friends. Most of all, we want our trips to be fun! In this spirit, the successful adventure traveler should be a good-natured realist and have a sense of humor! Adventure trips, by nature, require that participants be self-sufficient, flexible, and able to accept situations as they exist, and not just as they would have preferred or expected them to exist. The constraints of scheduled group traveling also necessitate that each of us be understanding of and sensitive to others. Being on time is important, and contributes to the congeniality, success and well-being of both individuals and the group!
