DAY 2
Tuesday
4/16/24

Kathmandu

Kathmandu is at an elevation of approximately 4,600 feet in the Kathmandu Valley of central Nepal. The city has a multi-ethnic population and is a cultural center.

Explore Kathmandu

This morning, you'll explore Kathmandu as a group. You'll visit Swyambunath, a Buddhist shrine also called the monkey temple, Pashupathi Nath, a Hindu pilgrimage site, and Boudhanath, a Buddhist site. Soak in the hustle and bustle of this busy city.

Lunch on Your Own

Enjoy lunch on your own at one of the many local restaurants during your tour of Kathmandu.

Trek Briefing

Late this afternoon, meet your trekking guide for a briefing on the trip and a gear check. You'll receive your duffel bag for the trek, and the guides will check that you have proper gear.

Dinner

Dinner is on your own this evening.

DAY 3
Wednesday
4/17/24

Kathmandu to Phakding

Lukla is a town in southeastern Nepal and is a great place to start your trek to Everest Base Camp. Although the name Lukla means “place with many goats and sheep,” few are found in the area now.

Helicopter to Lukla

Wake up early this morning and head to the airport for your helicopter flight to Lukla. During this short flight you’ll see panoramic views of the surrounding mountains. Helicopter is the most reliable way to get to and from Lukla.

Meet Your Sherpas

When you arrive in Lukla, you’ll meet your Sherpas for the trek, as well as your porters, which will carry your bags.

Pick up Your Rental Gear

Pick up any rental gear you need for the trek today. Rental gear can be paid for in US dollars or local currency.

Begin Your Trek

Start your trek today. Head to Phakding located near the river Dudhkoshi, which means “white like milk.” (Trekking time 4-4.5 hours, approx 4.5 miles)

DAY 4
Thursday
4/18/24

Phakding to Namche

Namche is a town in northeastern Nepal. It is located in the Khumbu area on the side of a hill and is a main trading center for the area. This is a good place to acclimatize to the altitude.

Trek to Namche Continue trekking today along the banks of the Dudh Koshi River. Pass by many small mountain villages and cross several suspension bridges, including the Hillary Bridge. You will trek slowly to help your body adjust to the altitude. Reach Namche this afternoon. (Trekking time 6-7 hours, approx 4.7 miles)

Relax at Your Lodge Once you arrive in Namche, take some time to kick your feet up at your lodge.

DAY 5
Friday
4/19/24

Namche to Khumjung

Take some time to acclimatize to the altitude today. Spending time here will help your body get ready for the days ahead.

Acclimatize Today

Take a short hike today to help your body adapt to the elevation. Walk to Khumjung, passing the Syangboche airport. On the way, you'll stop at Everest View Hotel for, you guessed it, a spectacular view of Mount Everest, Mount Ama Dablam, and more (weather permitting of course). (Trekking time 3 hours, approx. 1 mile)

Visit a School

This afternoon you will have the opportunity to visit a village school that is run through the Sir Edmund Hillary Foundation inside an old monastery. Engage in a discussion with local women who are involved in the school.

Accommodations
Ama Dablam Lodge

DAY 6
Saturday
4/20/24

Khumjung to Tengboche

Tengboche Monastery is the largest gompa, or center of learning, in the Khumbu region. The structure, built in 1923, was destroyed by an earthquake in 1934, rebuilt, destroyed in a fire in 1989, and rebuilt again. Tengboche has a panoramic view of the Himalayas.

Today's Trek

Head to Tengboche this morning. You'll start by hiking downhill to the river and crossing to the other side. Once you cross the river, the trail climbs steeply through forests and mani stones. (Trekking time 5-6 hours, approx. 3.7 miles)

Tengboche Monastery

Arrive at the Tengboche Monastery, which boasts the most magnificent view of the Himalayan giants: Kwangde (20,299 feet), Twachee (21,463 feet), Ama Dablam (22,349 feet), Everest (29,029 feet), and Nuptse (25,850 feet).

DAY 7
Sunday
4/21/24

Tengboche to Dingboche

Dingboche is a Sherpa village with a population of a few hundred permanent residents. One of the defining characteristics of the village is the kilometers of stone walls, created using stones that are common to the entire valley. These stones are removed before plowing the soil and are then piled on top of each other to create walls.

Trek to Dingboche

Leave Tengboche and descend to Debuche through a forest of birches, conifers, and rhododendrons. Cross the Imja Kohla River on a steel bridge, and begin the climb to Pangboche. This afternoon can be quite cold and windy. (Trekking time 6 hours, approx 5.6 miles)

Views from Dingboche

From Dingboche, you will be treated to views of Island Peak, Makalu, and another face of Ama Dablam.

DAY 8
Monday
4/22/24

Dingboche

The Imja Khola (Imja River) is a tributary of the Dudh Kosi and drains the slopes of Mount Everest. It collects water from the Imja Glacier through the Dingboche Valley.

Acclimatization Hike

Head out for a short hike near the Nangakarshang Hill to continue acclimatizing. Enjoy beautiful views of Lhotse, Makalu, and Cho Oyu, and admire Cholatse and Taboche peaks before returning to Dingboche. (Trekking time 2-3 hours, approx 1.9 miles)

DAY 9
Tuesday
4/23/24

Dingboche to Lobuche

Lobuche is a small settlement near Mount Everest and is one of the last overnight stops with lodging on the trail to Base Camp. At this time of year, you'll see hundreds of Sherpas passing through Lobuche, making their way to Everest Base Camp, sometimes with yaks carrying supplies.

Trek to Lobuche

Leave Dingboche and trek through the high alpine regions. Cross the frozen glacial river at Thukla and climb as you enter Lobuche, admiring the magnificent views of Cholatse, Lobuche, Pumori, and Nuptse. You'll pass the climbers' memorial today. (Trekking time 4-5 hours, approx. 4 miles)

DAY 10
Wednesday
4/24/24

Lobuche to Gorak Shep

The settlement of Gorak Shep is named for a frozen lakebed covered with sand. The settlement sits at the lake's edge and is not inhabited year-round. Gorak Shep was the original Everest Base Camp.

Trek to Gorak Shep

Leave Lobuche and hike very slowly to Gorak Shep. Along the way, you'll see the Khumbu Glacier. Once you arrive in Gorak Shep, you'll see Mount Pumore and Mount Nuptse standing above you.

Reach Everest Base Camp

After taking a short break in Gorak Shep, hike to Everest Base Camp (17,598 feet). You made it! Take a moment to celebrate and snap some pictures with your AdventureWomen companions before heading back down to Gorak Shep for the night. Celebrate your accomplishment with your group! DAY 11
Thursday
4/25/24

Gorakshep to Pheriche

Kala Patthar, meaning “black rock” in Nepali, is a small prominence above Gorakshep. Climbing Kala Patthar gives you the most accessible close-up view of Mount Everest.

Optional Climb of Kala Patthar

Leave before dawn for an optional climb Kala Patthar (18,514’) this morning to take some photographs of the panoramic view of Mount Everest and its range.

Descend to Pheriche

Start hiking down to Pheriche after breakfast. You will move faster going downhill and descending to lower elevations will feel great! Enjoy lunch along the way. (Trekking time 5-6 hours, approx. 10 miles)

DAY 13
Saturday
4/27/24

Tengboche to Monjo

Monjo lies just below the Sagarmatha National Park entrance gate and is a good place to stop on your way back down to Lukla.

Keep Descending

Today is another long descent day (with uphill included!) to Monjo. You'll have a great time celebrating your accomplishment with your fellow AdventureWomen trekkers along the way! Don't forget to enjoy the views as you hike. You'll have a chance to do some shopping in Monjo. (Trekking time 6 hours, approx. 10 miles)

DAY 14
Sunday
4/28/24

Monjo to Lukla

The only way to get supplies to Lukla now is by flying, so this is quite a busy airstrip! The Nepalese Airport announced plans to build a road from Kathmandu to Lukla, but plane is the most reliable means of transport for the time being.

Last Hike

Enjoy your final hike in the Himalayas as you descend to Lukla. Celebrate this evening with your Sherpa friends as they share their culture with you. (Trekking time 5 hours, approx. 7.5 miles)

Celebrate With Guides and Sherpas

After you finish your trek, take the chance to celebrate your accomplishment with your guides and sherpas. This is a good time to give the team gratuities and to thank them for helping you on this adventure.

Accommodation Details

Hotel Yak & Yeti The restored 19th-century palace houses two restaurants, several grand banquet halls, and the Casino Royale. In the lobby, granite floors, carved wood pillars, and gleaming brass and copper provide a suitably exotic feel, and through a wall of glass you can see the hotel's extensive gardens. All of the guest rooms are comfortable and nicely equipped to give a feeling of being home while away from home. It is THE place to stay in Kathmandu!

Amenities: Soap, shampoo, conditioner, hair dryer; electricity; Wifi available for a fee

Trekking Lodges

The lodges you will stay in on this trek are small, simple tea houses. At some lodges, you will have en suite bathrooms and showers, at others, you will have shared bathrooms and no showers, and at the highest lodge, you'll have shared squat toilets. Toilet paper is provided for you! All the lodges provide comfortable, clean, and basic accommodations, plentiful food, and boiled water. As you go up in elevation, the amenities at the lodges go down.

Adventure Travel Today

At AdventureWomen, we want everyone to understand that our excursions are adventure travel vacations and not "tours." We define "adventure travel" as travel in which one actively participates, as opposed to a "tour," in which one is more or less a passive observer. AdventureWomen designs and organizes vacations all over the world for women who want to experience an active, out of the ordinary vacation, and meet new friends. Most of all, we want our trips to be fun!

good-natured realist and have a sense of humor! Adventure vacations, by nature, require that participants be self-sufficient, flexible, and able to accept situations as they exist, and not just as they would have preferred or expected them to exist. The constraints of scheduled group traveling also necessitate that each of us be understanding of and sensitive to others. Being on time is important, and contributes to the congeniality, success and well-being of both individuals and the group!

In this spirit, the successful adventure traveler should be a
