Bustling Cairo is Egypt's capital city and its cultural heart. Backdropped by the ancient Pyramids of Giza, this forward-looking city comfortably rubs shoulders with past civilizations. Through a wide variety of sightseeing highlights and interactive cultural activities, you'll step back in time to explore incredible ancient wonders.

Great Pyramids of Giza

Visit the Great Pyramids of Giza, the only present-day survivors of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World, built over 4,500 years ago. These giant tombs were built to house the mummies of the Pharaohs Khufu, Khafre, and Menkaure. Khufu's is the largest, made out of more than two million blocks.

The Sphinx

The enigmatic Sphinx sits nearby the pyramids. It has the body of a lion and the face of a man wearing a royal head cloth. About a thousand years after the Sphinx was built, it was covered in sand, until a young prince had a dream in which the Sphinx told him if he cleared the sand away, he would become Pharaoh.

DAY 3
Thursday
10/16/25

Cairo to the Nile River

Once the Pharaohs' capital at the height of their power from the 16th - 11th centuries B.C., Luxor sits on the east bank of the Nile River, on the site of ancient Thebes. Today's city surrounds two huge surviving ancient monuments: graceful Luxor Temple and Karnak Temple. The royal tombs of the Valley of the Kings and the Valley of the Queens are on the river's west bank.

Fly to Luxor

Transfer to the airport for your short flight from Cairo to Luxor.

Board the Boat

Board the Sanctuary Nile Adventurer, your home for the next four nights on the Nile. Settle into your cabin.

Valley of the Kings

Visit the West Bank of Luxor to explore the Valley of the Kings, a vast City of the Dead where magnificent tombs were carved into the desert rocks, decorated richly, and filled with treasures for the afterlife by generations of Pharaohs. You'll have the chance to visit at least one tomb in the Valley of the Queens, as well as the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut.

Rising out of the desert plain in a series of terraces, the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut (Ancient Egypt's only female Pharaoh) merges with the sheer limestone cliffs that surround it, as if nature herself had built this extraordinary monument.

See King Tut's Tomb

Venture in to explore one of the most famous archeological finds not only in Egypt, but in the world: King Tut's tomb. Located in the Valley of the Kings, the tomb of King Tutankhamun is widely known for its abundance of lavish antiques and artifacts.

Colossi of Memnon

On the way back to the river Nile, the road passes by the famed Colossi of Memnon, known in Ancient Greek times for their haunting voices at dawn. This is a great photo stop.

DAY 4
Friday
10/17/25

The Nile River

Egyptian hieroglyphics were the formal writing system of Ancient Egypt and date back over 5,200 years. There were over 1,000 distinct symbols, called glyphs, which were generally read right to left, but on the walls of temples and tombs they appear in columns, with no spaces or punctuation. They were written on the walls of the Pharaoh's tomb to help him get to the afterlife.

Visit the Temple of Karnak

Start your day on the East Bank by visiting the Temple of Karnak, built over a period of more than a thousand years by generations of Pharaohs. The great "Hypostyle Hall" is an incredible forest of giant pillars, covering an area larger than the whole of Notre Dame Cathedral.

Temple of Luxor

Explore the striking and graceful Temple of Luxor, which is dedicated to the God Amun. Your guide will explain the details of the temple.

Afternoon and Evening

DAY 5
Saturday
10/18/25

The Nile River

Tell Edfu is a monument full of Egyptian history and archaeological interest. Enough of the settlement has been preserved to gain information from as far back as the Predynastic Period. The remains of the settlement, or “tell,” provides an insight into the development of Edfu as a provincial town from the end of the Old Kingdom until the Byzantine period. The oldest part of the town can be dated to the late Old Kingdom.

Temple of Edfu

After breakfast, explore the Temple of Edfu, also known as the Temple of Horus. The temple is one of the best-preserved temples from ancient Egypt and was dedicated to the god Horus, the falcon-headed deity. The temple was constructed during the Ptolemaic period, between 237 and 57 BC. It features impressive pylons, courtyards, and well-preserved inscriptions and reliefs, providing valuable insights into ancient Egyptian religious practices. The Temple of Edfu is a significant historical and archaeological site and is a popular tourist attraction in Egypt.

Lunch

Enjoy lunch on board as you cruise to Kom Ombo.

Temple of Kom Ombo

Visit the Temple of Kom Ombo, a lovely Greco-Roman temple uniquely double-dedicated to Haroeris, the sun god, and Sobek, the crocodile god. Here the ancient pharaohs kept a chamber of mummified crocodiles. The temple stands at a bend in the Nile where in ancient times sacred crocodiles basked in the sun on the riverbank.

Afternoon Tea and Cooking Lesson

Later, afternoon tea is served in the lounge, and you have the chance to take part in an Egyptian cooking lesson as you sail to Aswan.

Dinner

This evening's on board dinner is an Egyptian Night costume party, inviting all guests to dress up in traditional Egyptian galabeyya attire. Dinner is a lavish buffet of Egyptian specialties.

DAY 6
Sunday
10/19/25

The Nile River

Located 81 miles south of Luxor, Aswan has a distinctively different feel. There is a mix of Arabic and African cultures, making it a very interesting place to visit. The influence of Egypt's southern neighbor, Sudan, can be felt here. The markets are lined with colorful pyramids of spices, perfumes, scarves, and baskets.

Philae Temple

Visit the romantic and majestic Philae Temple on the Island of Agilka. Philae Temple was dismantled and reassembled (on Agilika Island about 550 meters from its original home on Philae Island) in the wake of the High Dam. The temple, dedicated to the goddess Isis, is in a beautiful setting which has been landscaped to match its original site.

Visit the Granite Quarries

Head to the granite quarries where the pink-colored granite used in building pyramids and temples in ancient Egypt came from. The quarries still hold a huge unfinished obelisk that the guides can use to give a lesson in the methods used by ancient engineers to create the monuments you have viewed.

Lunch

Enjoy lunch on board the boat.

Felucca Ride

If the weather cooperates, take a felucca (a typical Egyptian sailboat) around Elephantine Island, Lord Kitchener's Botanical Gardens, and the Agha Khan Mausoleum.

DAY 7

The Nile River to Cairo

The largest city in the Muslim world, the Arab world, and all of Africa, Cairo is a busy mega-city with an enormous cultural influence and the strongest economy in the Middle East. Not only is it the home of al-Azhar University, the second-oldest higher learning institution on earth, it is also the regional headquarters of many international businesses, media, and organizations.

Temples of Abu Simbel

Transfer to the Aswan airport for a short flight to the magnificent temples of Abu Simbel. Carved directly into the face of a cliff, Ramses II Temple is guarded by four enormous 65-foot figures of the pharaoh and depicts his most celebrated triumphs in battle. Nearby is the graceful Temple of Hathor, dedicated to the cow-headed goddess of love and built in honor of Ramses' favorite wife, Queen Nefertari. An international rescue effort from 1966-68 saved the temples from the rising waters of the Nile caused by the building of the great Aswan Dam. UNESCO organized the campaign, with the temples being cut into blocks, raised piece-by-piece, and reassembled in a new position higher up the hillside. However, even with modern technology, the engineers were unable to duplicate the efforts of the ancient Egyptians. The temple was originally built so the sun's rays would penetrate deep into the temple to illuminate the Holy of Holies on the morning of Ramses II name day. In repositioning the temple, the modern-day engineers missed this event by one day.

DAY 9
Wednesday
10/22/25

Amman

While there are many theories to where the city name Amman came from, the most widely accepted is from the 13th century BC. It is believed that the name is derived from the Ammonites who named it “Rabbath Ammon” meaning “King’s Quarters.” Since then, the “Rabbath” has been dropped and “Ammon” westernized to “Amman,” leaving the modern city name we know today. There was a short period of time when the city was renamed by the occupying Macedonian ruler to “Philadelphia!”

City Tour

Take a city tour of Amman that includes the Citadel and the Roman Theater, and then a walk downtown through the bazaars and the Gold Market. High above the city, at the ancient Citadel, study the traces of Amman’s many lives. At the foot of the Citadel is the Roman Theater, a deep-sided bowl carved into the hill and still used for cultural events.

Jerash

Drive to Jerash, where you will have lunch in a local restaurant. After lunch, take some time to explore Jerash. Second only to Petra in tourist appeal, the ancient Roman city of Jerash is an archaeological masterpiece, and remarkable for its long chain of human occupation. Here at a well-watered site framed by the hills of Gilead, remains from Neolithic times have been found, as well as ruins from other civilizations: Greek, Roman, Byzantine, and Umayyad. Today, it is acknowledged as one of the best-preserved province cities of the Roman Empire.

DAY 10
Thursday
10/23/25

Amman to Petra

When most people think of the Middle East, they think desert. Jordan is a prime example of how untrue this generalization is. The variations in natural settings in such a small country are truly spellbinding. Up in the northwest are the fertile low valleys of the Jordan River, where there is vast farmland as well as access to the saltiest body of water on earth, the Dead Sea. In the south are the vast deserts of the Badia Region. Between the two lie the mountain highlands of Jordan where you find the most abundant vegetation amongst mountains and plateaus.

Champagne Breakfast at the Royal Stables

Today, you'll embark on a journey to the Royal Stables for an exclusive visit and breakfast experience. In the gardens of the Royal Stables, a renowned five-star deluxe hotel in Amman will arrange a unique champagne breakfast. Following this, you can unwind and enjoy a show featuring the thoroughbred Arabian horses from the private collection of the Jordanian Royal Family.

Mount Nebo

Mount Nebo is the mountain where Moses was allowed to see the Holy Land and not allowed to enter it. Nowadays the mountain is a memorial site, where you can find the "Church of Moses" which was built by the first Christians. Enjoy a great view over Jordan, the Dead Sea, and Israel. When the weather is clear, you should even be able to see Jerusalem, which is about 35 miles away.

Madaba

Travel to Madaba, known as the City of Mosaics. The main attraction is a vivid, 6th century mosaic map showing Jerusalem and other holy sites. With two million pieces of colored stone and measuring 25x25 meters in its original state (most of which can still be seen today), the map depicts hills, valleys, villages, and towns as far away as the Nile Delta.

DAY 11

10/24/25

Petra

In 1812, a Swiss scholar and explorer rediscovered the hidden and secretive ancient oasis of Petra. Before then, the city made of stone had long been forgotten and abandoned to western world. Disguised as a Bedouin, Johann Ludwig Burkhardt rediscovered the great majesty and beauty of the stone city. This UNESCO World Heritage Site is an unrivaled marvel as one of the 7 New Wonders of the World.

Petra

The ancient city of Petra was carved from solid red sandstone in the 3rd century BC. In this era, Petra was a fortress, carved out of craggy rocks, in an area that was virtually inaccessible. It was the capital of the Nabataens, a nomadic Arabian tribe who ruled the Trans-Jordan area in pre-Roman times and derived their great wealth and power from the passing trade caravans.

Lunch

Enjoy lunch inside Petra with your group.

Petra to Wadi Rum

Otherwise known as Valley of the Moon, the landscape of Wadi Rum with its immensity, color, and awe-inspiring shapes creates an almost supernatural atmosphere. Wadi Rum was the setting for the film 'Lawrence of Arabia' and the actual location where T.E. Lawrence set his camp; he named his book 'The Seven Pillars of Wisdom' after the seven natural columns varying in height located en route to Wadi Rum.

Visit Little Petra Visit Little Petra, or Al Beidha, a smaller version of Petra literally hidden away in the center of a mountain. The miniature version of Petra contains several notable tombs.

Drive to Wadi Rum Bedouin camps are evident in the Wadi and are still home to a number of Bedouin families who welcome visitors with the hospitality and generosity that Bedouins are so famous for. Explore the desert with a 4x4 driven by a local Bedouin for two hours. Enjoy lunch under a Bedouin tent.

Due to high annual temperatures, low humidity, and high atmospheric pressure, the air is extremely oxygenated. The high content of oxygen and magnesium in the air make breathing a lot easier. With the highest content of minerals and salts in the world, the Dead Sea water possesses anti-inflammatory properties, and the dark mud found on its shores has been used for therapeutic purposes for more than 2,000 years.

Adventure Travel Today

At AdventureWomen, we want everyone to understand that our excursions are adventure travel vacations and not "tours." We define "adventure travel" as travel in which one actively participates, as opposed to a "tour," in which one is more or less a passive observer. AdventureWomen designs and organizes vacations all over the world for women who want to experience an active, out of the ordinary vacation, and meet new friends. Most of all, we want our trips to be fun!

good-natured realist and have a sense of humor! Adventure vacations, by nature, require that participants be self-sufficient, flexible, and able to accept situations as they exist, and not just as they would have preferred or expected them to exist. The constraints of scheduled group traveling also necessitate that each of us be understanding of and sensitive to others. Being on time is important, and contributes to the congeniality, success and well-being of both individuals and the group!

In this spirit, the successful adventure traveler should be a
