DAY 2
Sunday
9/7/25

Split to the Dalmatian Coast

Split is the second largest city in Croatia, and the largest city in Dalmatia. It lies on the eastern shore of the Adriatic Sea, centered on the Roman Palace of the Emperor Diocletian. Spread over a central peninsula and its surroundings, Split's greater area includes the neighboring seaside towns as well. A regional transport hub and popular tourist destination, the city is the link to numerous Adriatic islands and the Apennine peninsula.

Explore Split After breakfast, explore Split. Visit Diocletian's Palace, Split's Cathedral, Peristil Square, and Split's famous promenade called "The Riva."

Lunch Enjoy lunch on your own.

Check-in on the Boat After lunch, head to the boat to check in. This will be your home and your base for exploring over the next several days.

Cruise to Trogir Explore the picturesque medieval stone town of Trogir, which is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Trogir is a treasure trove for lovers of art, Renaissance and Baroque buildings, and Romanesque churches.

Dinner Enjoy dinner on board the boat.

The Dalmatian Coast

Named after the Krka River, Krka National Park lies about 10km inland in this part of Dalmatia. The park is known for its magnificent waterfalls, including the famous Skradinski Buk falls, which are one of Croatia's most famous sights. Other highlights include the small island of Visovac and Roski Slap waterfall.

Krka National Park

After breakfast, hike through the beautiful Krka National Park.

Cruise to Brac Island

After exploring Krka, board the boat in time for lunch and cruise to Brac Island.

Dinner

Enjoy dinner on your own in Milna.

DAY 4
Tuesday
9/9/25

The Dalmatian Coast

The island of Vis is a pearl among Croatian Adriatic islands, left untouched by the development of tourism for so many years. Since the independence of Croatia, the island began opening slowly to the outside world, offering its unique traditions, history, cultural heritage, and natural beauties to the outside world. It has some of the best beaches in the country. Vis is known for its fresh seafood and local wines.

Brac Island

After breakfast on board, go for a morning stroll in the town of Milna. Enjoy lunch on board today.

Cruise to Vis Island

Stopping for swimming opportunities, cruise to the island of Vis. Disembark and explore the town of Komiza, a small fisherman's town. It will inspire you with its charm, rich cultural heritage, and its excellent food and wines.

Visit a wine cellar, taste several wines, and then enjoy dinner in a local restaurant.

DAY 5
Wednesday
9/10/25

The Dalmatian Coast

Korcula Island is located on a small headland, and has Venetian architecture, defensive walls, and attractive pantiled roofs Korcula evoking memories of Dubrovnik. The town is small but well preserved, with the layout and structure dating back to the latter half of the 13th century. One of Korcula's claims to fame is that it was allegedly the birthplace of Marco Polo.

The Blue Cave

Visit the Blue Cave, which was formed by the waves of the sea. The sea water eroded the limestone rock which makes up the whole island of Bisevo. The cave itself is 78 feet long, 35 feet deep, and up to 49 feet high, while the entrance measures five feet high and eight feet wide. Enjoy the stunning turquoise color of the water from your rowboat.

Cruise to Korcula Island

After lunch on board, and possible stops for swimming, cruise to the island of Korcula. Disembark. Visit the Marovic family home where you will learn about how they produce olive oil by hand. Sample their homemade marmalades and jams. Afterwards, you can explore Korcula and enjoy dinner on your own.

DAY 6
Thursday
9/11/25

The Dalmatian Coast

Mljet is Croatia's greenest island, with its Mediterranean vegetation, clear and clean sea, gentle sandy shoreline, and a wealth of underwater sea life. The island is considered to be one of the most beautiful of the Croatian islands. It is well known for its white and red wine, olives, and goat cheese.

Town of Korcula

After breakfast, explore Korcula. Enjoy a guided tour of the City Museum and St. Mark's Cathedral.

Cruise to Mljet Island

Return for an early lunch on board, and then cruise to the beautiful island of Mljet with possible stops for swimming and paddle boarding along the way.

DAY 7
Friday
9/12/25

The Dalmatian Coast

Island Mljet stretches over 100 square kilometers. Thanks to its thick pine forest, karstic caves, two picturesque lakes connected with the sea, gravelly and sandy beaches, and fishing areas abundant with fish and lobster, the west part of the island has been made a National Park.

Mljet National Park

After breakfast, visit Mljet National Park for a three-hour hiking and biking tour. Enjoy the rich flora and fauna and take in the stunning views.

Cruise to Dubrovnik

After lunch on board, cruise to Dubrovnik, the "Pearl of the Adriatic."

DAY 8
Saturday
9/13/25

The Dalmatian Coast

Dubrovnik, the “Pearl of the Adriatic” on the Dalmatian coast, became an important Mediterranean Sea power starting in the 13th century. Although severely damaged by an earthquake in 1667, Dubrovnik managed to preserve its beautiful Gothic, Renaissance, and Baroque churches, monasteries, palaces, and fountains. It is now recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Tour the Old Town

After breakfast, transfer to Dubrovnik for a half-day tour of the Old Town and learn about its rich history. Visit the Franciscan Church and Monastery, Rector’s Palace, and the Cathedral with its Treasury that houses the relics of St. Blaise and St. Blaise’s Church.

Free Afternoon

Transfer back to the port for lunch on board. The afternoon is free for possible kayaking or sightseeing.

Farewell Dinner

Have a farewell dinner with your new AdventureWomen friends. Reminisce over all the memories you have made and celebrate the end of an incredible trip!

Adventure Travel Today

At AdventureWomen, we want everyone to understand that our excursions are adventure travel vacations and not "tours." We define "adventure travel" as travel in which one actively participates, as opposed to a "tour," in which one is more or less a passive observer. AdventureWomen designs and organizes vacations all over the world for women who want to experience an active, out of the ordinary vacation, and meet new friends. Most of all, we want our trips to be fun!

good-natured realist and have a sense of humor! Adventure vacations, by nature, require that participants be self-sufficient, flexible, and able to accept situations as they exist, and not just as they would have preferred or expected them to exist. The constraints of scheduled group traveling also necessitate that each of us be understanding of and sensitive to others. Being on time is important, and contributes to the congeniality, success and well-being of both individuals and the group!

In this spirit, the successful adventure traveler should be a
