The Portuguese Way

Legend has it that in the year 44, after his Martyrdom, the body of James the Apostle was transported on a stone vessel along the Arousa Estuary to get to the land of Galicia where he was meant to be buried. The boat is said to have traveled from Jaffa to Galicia, upstream on the Ulla river until it reached Iria Flavia (Padron), and on to Santiago de Compostela.

After a 20-minute drive back to Ponte Sampaio, continue your journey through forest paths and quaint villages until reaching the Chapel of Santa Marta, where you will take a pleasant route through the forest to the city of Pontevedra.

Continue Hiking

After lunch on your own in Pontevedra, walk through the city and follow the inland Portuguese Camino for about an hour before reaching the separation point with the Spiritual Variant/the Maritime Way. This detour is relatively new - it was only accepted by the Pilgrim Office in 2013 but has the oldest origin of all Caminos. During the next two days, you will be following the detour toward Vilanova de Arousa, where you will board a little boat and follow the final journey of the Apostle.

Along the way, journey through quiet country roads and paths to the church of San Pedro de Campano before descending towards the Monastery of San Juan de Poio. After a short visit to the Monastery, you will be picked up and transferred to Combarro, famous for its numerous Horreos (a typical granary on pillars). Enjoy some time on your own before being transferred to your lovely hotel for the evening.

DAY 6
Thursday
5/8/25

The Portuguese Way

Cambados is famous for its Albariño white wine. The area is generally moist, cool, and windy, contributing to the grape's thickness and the wine's strong aroma. Only within this last decade has Albariño become better known. This wine has been nicknamed "the wine of the sea" because of its coastal vineyards and its compatibility with seafood.

Hike to Pontearnelas

After a short drive to the Monastery of Armenteira, start the day with a visit to the 12th-16th-century Cistercian Monastery of Armenteira, followed by a walk on the relaxing "Ruta da Pedra e da Auga" (the route of stone and water) along the Armenteira river. This is a lovely section of trail in Galicia; follow a small river in the woodlands and pass more than 30 water mills built to grind flour within two hours. Finish today's hike at the 16th-century stone bridge of Pontearnelas.

Lunch

Enjoy lunch on your own in Ribadumia before continuing your hike to Ponte Arnelas.

Wine Tasting

Cambados is considered to be the capital of Albariño, one of the best white wines in the world. Enjoy an Albariño wine tasting and visit a winery before having dinner as a group.

The Portuguese Way

The Portuguese Way of the Camino spans Lisbon to Santiago and boasts stunning coastal views. It was even used by the Queen of Portugal in the 14th century. Nowadays it is known for its extraordinary scenery, beaches, and food!

Boat Cruise

Drive to the harbor in Vilanova de Arousa and board a little boat for a cruise that follows the journey of the stone boat carrying the remains of the Apostle Saint James. You will sail toward Pontecesures next to Iria Flavia. Many miracles are said to have taken place during the crossing of the body of Saint James. Learn about the myths and legends of the region (including dragons, witches, and terrifying soul-seeking processions) from your guide.

Walk to Padrón

Walk a short distance to the town of Padrón, where the stone boat is said to have moored with the body of the Apostle Saint James. The town is also famous for its mild green peppers, so be sure to order them for lunch! Lunch is on your own today.

Visit the Pazo de Faramello

After a break in Padrón, the Camino brings you to the Baroque sanctuary of A Esclavitude. At the end of the hike, you reach the Pazo de Faramello, probably one of the most beautiful and important private palaces in Galicia. Hopefully the Marquis Gonzalo Rivero de Aguilar is available to show you through his family home and beautiful camellia garden. If he is not, someone else in his family will do the honors of showing you around. Gonzalo is a knight of Saint James. Share a glass of his homemade Albariño before heading to your hotel for dinner as a group.

Adventure Travel Today

At AdventureWomen, we want everyone to understand that our excursions are adventure travel vacations and not "tours." We define "adventure travel" as travel in which one actively participates, as opposed to a "tour," in which one is more or less a passive observer. AdventureWomen designs and organizes vacations all over the world for women who want to experience an active, out of the ordinary vacation, and meet new friends. Most of all, we want our trips to be fun!

good-natured realist and have a sense of humor! Adventure vacations, by nature, require that participants be self-sufficient, flexible, and able to accept situations as they exist, and not just as they would have preferred or expected them to exist. The constraints of scheduled group traveling also necessitate that each of us be understanding of and sensitive to others. Being on time is important, and contributes to the congeniality, success and well-being of both individuals and the group!

In this spirit, the successful adventure traveler should be a
