Day 2

A Holiday Fairyland in Sélestat and Obernai

Explore Sélestat, a charming town with medieval architecture and the UNESCO-listed Humanist Library. Wander its bustling markets and enjoy the festive atmosphere. Drive the picturesque Alsace Wine Route, stopping for a delightful three-course lunch. In the afternoon, visit Obernai's Christmas Market, featuring 40 chalets with local treats, wine, jams, and unique mulled wine. Discover artisanal crafts and festive decorations against the backdrop of Obernai's illuminated historic buildings.

Dinner is on your own tonight. Your hotel in Strasbourg's historic center is the perfect base to explore nearby restaurants. Your guide can recommend great dining spots.

Day 3

Enchanting Colmar and Eguisheim

Embark on another captivating day along the Alsace Wine Route, starting in Colmar. Wander through its narrow, colorful streets and the enchanting Little Venice, with picturesque canals and half-timbered houses. Enjoy an exclusive visit to the Christmas Market, filled with wooden chalets selling local foods, handmade ornaments, and crafts, all under twinkling lights. After a traditional 3-course lunch, head to Eguisheim, a medieval village just 3 miles from Colmar. Discover its charming streets, half-timbered houses, and authentic Alsatian crafts like pottery and glassblowing. Eguisheim's market has been awarded the "Villes et Villages de Noël" label for its authenticity and traditions. Explore traditional foods and Alsatian wine at the chalets. This evening is at your leisure.

Day 4

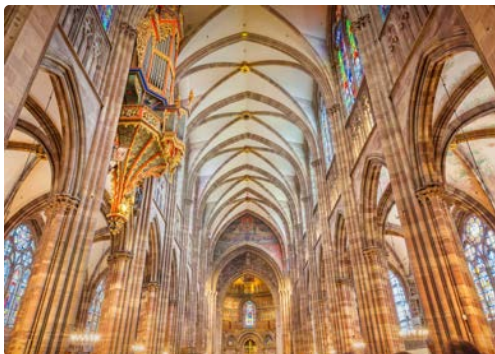

Lalique Treasures and Culinary Delights

Start your day with a visit to the nearby Lalique Museum. Marvel at over 650 pieces of exquisite jewelry, perfume bottles, vases, and chandeliers, showcasing Lalique's evolution from goldsmith to glassmaker. After exploring the museum, enjoy a 3-course lunch at Château Hochberg, where Chef Barberis crafts a refined menu inspired by seasonal local products and his global travels. Return to Strasbourg for a memorable culinary experience under the expert guidance of a talented Alsatian chef, who welcomes you into her home in "La Petite France", Strasbourg's historic neighborhood. Explore "emotional cuisine," a unique concept blending three artistic dimensions: a passion for cooking, poetry, and painting. Conclude this immersive experience with a delightful tasting session, savoring your creations transformed into a high-quality 3-course dinner and associated beverages (wines, crémant, saké, and soft drinks).
